

Jomfruen

ANNO 1917

S/S Jomfruen was originally a merchant vessel, trading mainly along the Western Norwegian coastline between 1917 and 1984. In 1984 her comprehensive reconstruction began and was not completed until the spring of 1988. Jomfruen no longer has her original design, but she is an exquisite piece of craftsmanship which gives her a very special atmosphere. She is especially designed to seat parties of up to 63 guests. The main saloon is decorated in a rustic maritime style and the poop is one of the finest mahogany and cedar woods. In addition, Jomfruen has room on her decks for barbecues, dancing and other social activities.
