

Vega

BALTIC TRADER 1908

S/S Vega was built at Ring Andersens yard in Denmark in 1908. She was a "Baltic Trader" sailing for years along the coast of Sweden. She is a steelboat described as one of the most solid sailships in Norway. Vega has undergone a total restoration since her return to Scandinavia after many years in the Caribbean. Today Vega is a great sailer with good facilities for charter tours. The interior is in traditional mahogany and brass. In the main saloon 40 guests can be seated and a total of 20 guests can be seated in the aft saloon. In addition there are chairs and tables on deck. For overnight cruises the Vega has capacity for 15 guests in 6 cabins.
